

Bill Thatcher
Partner

T: +44 (0)1223 532709
E: billthatcher@hewitsons.com

Cambridge

Overview

Bill Thatcher is a Partner and a member of the firm's Commercial practice and Technology Sector Group.

Experience

Bill represents clients across many industries as well as public sector organisations in addition to charities / not-for-profit organisations. He handles a wide range of commercial and contract work for national and international clients. This includes research and development arrangements; a broad range of technology licensing contracts; all sorts of contracts for supply of goods and/or services (from either perspective); manufacturing contracts; distribution/agency contracts; I&CT supply, licensing and support agreements; publishing contracts; all aspects of doing business online; data protection; and many other commercial arrangements.

Background

Bill holds a degree from Cambridge University, where he read a combination of engineering and philosophy. He was commissioned into and served in the Royal Engineers and arrived by a circuitous route as a trainee solicitor at Hewitsons where he has been practising commercial law since 1990.

Additional Information

Leading in the fields of Technology, Media and Telecoms by the market leading independent directory Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners.

About Hewitsons

We pride ourselves on delivering an outstanding service to a wide range of individuals, businesses and means each client receives the focus it requires. We operate UK wide and have worldwide reach via our network of independent law firms, LawExchange International. www.hewitsons.com