Cambridge

Overview

Karen is a Solicitor in the Cambridge Real Estate Team.

Experience

Karen advises clients on a range of non-contentious real estate matters; including acquisitions, disposals, collaboration agreements, and development site arrangements, as well as related funding work. Karen also has experience with title rectification, adverse possession and complex first registrations.

Background

Karen studied environmental engineering in New Zealand and read law through the University of London International Programmes, before completing the Legal Practice Course at De Montfort with distinction.

Karen gained over 15 years' experience as an environmental engineer prior to pursuing a career in the law. Her previous experience included a wide range of planning and environmental work focussed on assessing and balancing the impacts of development.
