Overview

Katie is an Associate in the Northampton Real Estate Team.

Experience

Katie deals with freehold and leasehold property transactions, acting for individuals, businesses, landowners, investors, lenders, developers, charities, governmental bodies and educational establishments .

Katie's work includes acquisitions and disposals, property development work, property funding and corporate support work.

Katie also deals with leasehold transactions, including commercial leases and lease renewals and ancillary lease documentation such as deeds of variation, licences to occupy, tenancies at will, licences to alter, licences to underlet, licences to assign, deeds of assignment and deeds of surrender, acting for both landlords and tenants. Katie assists in managing the legal aspects of substantial property portfolios. Furthermore, Katie advises clients on various Land Registry issues, including first registrations and upgrading the class of title to land.

Background

Katie read law at Lancaster University and obtained a 2:1 degree before completing her legal practice course at the College of Law in Birmingham. She commenced her training contract with Hewitsons in 2006 and qualified into our Real Estate team in September 2008.
