Milton Keynes

Overview

Maria advises on a full range of non-contentious Real Estate matters, including advising clients on property portfolios (including residential buy-to-lets), landlord and tenant matters, property funding and corporate support work. In particular, she deals with commercial leases and acquisitions and disposals of commercial buildings and sites. Maria routinely advises private individuals, charities, businesses, colleges, lenders, pension funds and local authorities.

Background

Maria read Law at Queen Mary University of London before completing her Legal Practice Course at BPP, Holborn. She completed her training with a Bedfordshire based firm before joining Hewitsons in January 2016.
