

We cater for all kinds of charities and community benefitting organisations: we are privileged to act for around 400 different charities, educational organisations, institutions and social enterprises. Charities and similar organisations are as diverse as the needs they seek to address and so our service is also broad and flexible in its delivery. Virtually any legal need for any charity or non-profit organisation is provided for.

We have developed our services to provide tailored advice and support for:

Complex, service providing charities

- Corporate charities
- Grant making charities
- Educational charities
- Social enterprises and other non-profit organisations
- Small charities

We understand the different needs of different structures of charities, such as charitable incorporated organisations, guarantee companies, trusts, associations, community benefit societies, cooperatives, royal charter corporations, and charities founded by Act of Parliament.

We also deal with charities in a great variety of sub-sectors from arts to zoos and including conservation, education, faith based charities, community associations and village hall charities, NGOs and relief and development charities, almshouses, zoos and animal charities, heritage and property charities, theatres and arts charities, residential and care homes, hospices, offender rehabilitation, community foundations, sports and leisure organisations, medical and condition related charities, benevolent funds, youth organisations and wildlife trusts.

We would be pleased to support you and the work of your charity or organisation, do please get in touch.
