What happens when the bank of Mum and Dad says no?

In a most unusual case, the High Court has rejected a 41-year-old's claim that his parents were legally obligated to maintain him. To find out more please click here.

Property in HMRC's crosshairs

HMRC has secured access to Airbnb's records and begun a second home compliance campaign. To read more please click here.

Lost in Cyber-Space

The digitisation of finance is making it increasingly difficult for families and executors to locate and access assets after death. To find out more please click here.

The Expanded Trust Registration Service

The UK has significantly expanded its Trust Registration Service as part of its implementation of the 5th Anti-Money Laundering Directive. To find out more please click here.

Flexibility offered to self-assessment taxpayers

HMRC has moved to help self-assessment taxpayers by expanding the payment of income tax by instalments and announcing that daily penalties for late filing will not be charged. To find out more please click here.
