

Our Sports Group has a long-established record of advising sports-related organisations, including lottery distributors, sports administrators, national governing bodies, sports clubs, charities and trusts. We work with sports across numerous disciplines, including tennis, shooting, ice skating, taekwondo, karate, fencing, golf and ice hockey as well as a number of disability and Paralympic organisations.

Drawing on specialists from across the firm's service areas, we are able to advise sports clients on issues across corporate, finance, real estate, construction, dispute resolution, private wealth, sports regulatory, data protection, general commercial, sponsorship and intellectual property.

We work closely with our clients to provide practical advice and value for money. Since 2012, we have been a panel firm on the Legal Panel Framework (LPF), an initiative established by Sport England, UK Sport, the Sport and Recreation Alliance, Sport Wales and Sport Northern Ireland. The LPF aims to make it easier for national governing bodies and wider sport and recreation organisations, to identify and access high quality legal advice at preferential rates. Within the framework we also provide pro bono legal services for sports organisations.

We would be delighted to be able to assist you or your organisation so do please get in touch with a member of our team (see over the page) or email us at contactus@hewitsons.com.
